“Every Little Bit Counts”

Kathryn L. Wood

All too often one hears, “I’m just one person, what can I do?”. This sermon will look at the nature of the One and of the Collective Whole. Concepts such as the Free Rider and the Tragedy of the Commons will be explored along with the notion that as Unitarian-Universalists we are a community of individuals.

Kathryn is a political Science Professor at SJSU and is on the UUFLG Board of Trustees

We, The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist

Association covenant to affirm and promote:

The inherent worth and dignity of every person

Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations

Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregation

A free and responsible search for truth and meaning

The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process in our congregation and in society at large

The goal of a world community with peace, liberty and justice for all

Respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part.
