Sunday December 11, 2011

Marty Kendall

“Doo-Dah, Doo-Dah!”

From “Camptown Races” to “Hard Times” and “Oh Susanna,” the tunes written by Stephen Foster defined the American character for more than a hundred years. In her presentation, Martha Kendall will perform some of Foster’s most beloved music and tell the poignant story of the life of America’s first professional songwriter.

(Martha Kendal lives in Los Gatos and has spoken at the Fellowship many times, on subjects ranging from Elizabeth Cady Stanton to Ben Franklin to the Erie Canal to cycling the Camino de Santiago across Spain.)

We, The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist

Association covenant to affirm and promote:

The inherent worth and dignity of every person

Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations

Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregation

A free and responsible search for truth and meaning

The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process in our congregation and in society at large

The goal of a world community with peace, liberty and justice for all

Respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part.
