

We, The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregation covenant to affirm and promote:

The inherent worth and dignity of every person

Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations

Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregation

A free and responsible search for truth and meaning

The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process in our congregation and in society at large

The goal of a world community with peace, liberty and justice for all

Respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part.

RELATIONSHIPS:

The Good, the Bad, and the Funny

Dr. Chris Schriener

Our speaker this morning draws upon the wisdom of the comics to explore the pleasures and pitfalls of close relationships.

Although his sermon will focus on love relationships, the lessons he will share from the funny papers apply to all sorts of human interactions.

This sermon is the first of a two-part series.

Rev. Chris Schriener is a former psychotherapist and the author of five books. He is Minister Emeritus of Mission Peak Unitarian Universalist Congregation in Fremont. He holds a Doctor of Religion degree from Claremont Theological School.

We are pleased to have the Rev. Suzanne Semmes and the Rev. Chris Schriener providing our Sunday services while we are searching for a new minister.

Before the start of services, please turn off all electronic devices that can make a noise.
