

We, The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregation covenant to affirm and promote:

The inherent worth and dignity of every person

Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations

Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregation

A free and responsible search for truth and meaning

The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process in our congregation and in society at large

The goal of a world community with peace, liberty and justice for all

Respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part.

"Who Can Jesus Be for Us?"

Rev. Suzanne Semmes

Rev. Scotty McLennan says that the "church evolves over time by maintaining a master story about Jesus that is wide enough and deep enough to unite a disparate community of many types of members."

We'll take a look at how ideas of Jesus have evolved in the history of the church, and explore how he might have meaning for us today.

We are pleased to have the Rev. Suzanne Semmes and the Rev. Chris Schriener providing our Sunday services while we are searching for a new minister.

Before the start of services, please turn off all electronic devices that can make a noise.
