

We, The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregation covenant to affirm and promote:

The inherent worth and dignity of every person

Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations

Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregation

A free and responsible search for truth and meaning

The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process in our congregation and in society at large

The goal of a world community with peace, liberty and justice for all

Respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part.

Forty Years of Hidden Progress:

A Slightly
Rose-Colored
Retrospective

Rev. Chris Schriner

Unitarian Universalists tend to be aware of social issues, including many important political and economic problems. This is commendable, but sometimes we focus so much on what's wrong with society that we fall into despair.

Today we will talk about what's right with the world.

We are pleased to have the Rev. Suzanne Semmes and the Rev. Chris Schriner providing our Sunday services while we are searching for a new minister.

Before the start of services, please turn off all electronic devices that can make a noise.

Order of Service
Sunday, May 1, 2011
