Breakout Sunday

...with Special Mother's Day Program

Rev. Chris Schriner

Today we will begin the service as usual. Then after a few minutes we will divide into groups, meeting in different locations.

1. Rev. Chris Schriner will lead a Mother's Day program for those who remain in the sanctuary, with music, readings, meditations, and sharing about what Mother and motherhood mean to us.
2. Social Action will offer two sessions.
  - Outside they will lead a demonstration on gardening with native and drought tolerant plants.
  - In the West Room they will show an educational film "Nourish: What's the Story of your Food?"
3. RE will hold a regular class outside since the West Room is in use. They will explore the UUFLG grounds, have a nature scavenger hunt, and discuss the sustainable plants.

At the end of the sessions, we will gather in the sanctuary for the conclusion of the service.

We are pleased to have the Rev. Suzanne Semmes and the Rev. Chris Schriner providing Sunday services while we search for a new minister.

Before the start of services, please turn off all electronic devices that can make a noise.
