

We, The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregation covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person
- Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregation
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process in our congregation and in society at large
- The goal of a world community with peace, liberty and justice for all
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part.

Rev. Suzanne Semmes

"Brave Beauty Work:
The Landscape of the American West"

American writers
Mary Austin,
John Muir,
and Annie Dillard

wrote extensively about the lands they encountered in their travels and lives in the American West.

Today we'll consider the language they use to define those landscapes, and how it reflects the religious heritage from which they grew.
