

We, The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregation covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person
- Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregation
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process in our congregation and in society at large
- The goal of a world community with peace, liberty and justice for all
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part.

Rev. Chris Schriener

"Soul-Searching
in the Material World"

Chris will conclude his series on "neurotheology" by considering spiritual and practical implications of our new knowledge of neuroscience. Realistically, we cannot expect to rigidly control our brains, like a general giving orders to an army. Fortunately there are more effective ways to tap the vast potential of the "human biocomputer."
